Dmitri Medvedev,

First the presupposed bomb-attack on the St.Petersburg-Moscow train, last week.
What can we learn from it?

When I watched the news over the past week on the memorial for Mumbai-attacks 2008, I found myself thinking: 'Here we go again. Nobody is going to learn something good from it'.

What I mean: The news on bomb-attacks, terrorism, violence & war is always the same – day after day-'.
• Never is brought to our attention what the legal, economical or environmental solutions are against these attacks. Or better said, 'following on these attacks'.

We learn that Interpol & FBI have been involved in finding the perpetrators.
Pakistan has a clear point of view.
India is not really impressed by all the criticism, growing wiser in time...

The daily-news always broadcasts the same texts, with different names of VIPs underlaying the story.

- When a 'Simple person' wants to learn something from the media in order to help to anticipate on new attacks this is an annoying time-consuming undertaking. Depressing.

Why?

Because you must leave the tv on the whole day...to run into an informative topic.

For example, CNN yesterday.

[My daughter doesn't want me to work in the weekend anymore, because I'm too obsessed with my 'useless lawcase against Balkenende, which will be closed when she is an adult...and has finished her study....Than its too late to invest the freedom & money I will win with it....in her youth.....

Oei, oei, oei...Can you believe it? This girl failed her Intelligence-test 2009 = she has a low grade in the Middle-class. It must be the abusal in the class-room.

So, I turn on the tv, when she's still at her fathers'home, hoping to be able to upgrade my brains in order to remove war from NL & EU.]

Back to CNN

I run into an outline on 'the new Jihadi in Libia'.

I had already learned that Saudi & Syria have 'terrorism-detox programs for Moslims'

- Moslims learn that the Koran doesn't grant violence - in a closed setting like a prison -.
- Once detoxed-Moslims start to educate other still violent Moslims on 'how to detox themselves for a live without violence or terrorism'.

Libia has an almost identical detox-program

- 'Terrorists... guilty of planning & exercizing attacks against their own state... are being punished...and put into a luxurious prison...
- They sign a contract in which they promis to educate themselves for a live without violence – be a good familymember – and to go back to warzone with the assignment to detox local Jihadi...or so....

Of course, this includes the risk 'that former-Terrorist turn into future-Terrorists, once out of prison', but the parliaments are willing to take that risk...for a better image for Moslims.

In NL, we don't talk about these detox-programs.

- So, when we put on the daily news, 'nothing is going to change the day for the better'.

Moslim-hatred is now mixtured with hatred against the government + police + legal system + EU + NATO..etc...

Because of this, its unlikely that Obama's speech tomorrow is accepted by the majority

- Obama doesn't talk about 'effective Terrorism-detox-programs executed by Moslim-countries' = he wants more soldiers, fighting....
- And because Obama doesn't 'detox himself' other nations fail to explain these solutions to their own people too.

I believe that the person who placed the bomb next to the St.Petersburg-Moscow railway...is slow tv-watchers. Copier!

- Have you ever heard of 'true Terrorists making almost useless bombs'? I don't! When they want to kill 600-700 civilians, they kill civilians. Thus, the RU-bomb of last week is made by a 'not so smart person'!?

Why?

Because this is the only way 'to draw media-attention to legal, economical & environmental disasters in a human live'.

Especially when half the RU-population is drunk, low-educated, unemployed, lives in poverty.... TV only reports on bombs, place & casualties.

Dmitri,

You are personally on a junction...and if you take the wrong turn...you'll be 'a next dictator in Russia...bringing EU into war'.

- When you took over the Kremlin-office you were still 'your good Self'. You went for 'new systems for Justice.

- Now you are about to become a criminal-minded careless copier of EU-leaders & Obama!

You also 'keep the upper-class unpunished for crimes, when this comes handy for your business-contracts. On top of that , 'you punish the lower-class for crimes they commit...or for being a vitcums of EU-leaders' = you punish the wrong criminals.

Obama is a very dangerous – crime building – President.

- He carefully plans who must die for his Peace-progrma...over a long period of time.
- He rewards EU-leaders for their 'crimes against humanity in Europe' because he doesn't want to say to the USA-people: 'Afghanistan has to come to terms with its own violence. USA must leave Afghanistan, because we have killed over 3000 people in revenge for the 9/11-victums. An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth is finished'.
- Its still unclear 'which Bullshit & Blackmail-talk Obama is going to broadcast tomorrow', but in warzone its absolutely clear that he wants:
 - The Int.Criminal Court to stay a Lobby-& Assisantion-centre, because Balkenende & co may not be send to prison for 'warcimes in NL' , as long as USA want to copy the Dutch-way-of-working in Uruzgan + the Dutch healthcare-plan for USA. This implies that Obama doesn't want to stop corruption in Afghanistan/Pakistan with the help of ICC-cases. So, he wants to lawless to stay lawless for his IMAGE.
 - Aware of the fact that we have growing facism/racism in NL & EU, that can trigger into more war...any day... Obama ignores all possible EU-legal solutions available to anticipate on the outbreak of war, overhere...
Obama wants war in EU & NL for his image only.
 - To make sure Obama gets what he wants he even 'turns VIPs into the perfect murderers'. Upper-class people who come handy as a cover for his 'stupid peace-program' are placed in a heroish position.

Paul McCartney will be awarded for his Popular-songs at the US Library of Congres, the Whitehouse in 2010.

Obama is informed about my ICC-case against McCartney for slavery & torturing on me + war-victims in warzone + aidworkers + soldiers & civilians in warzone. Obama knows very well 'that McCartney even endangers the lives of Prince William & Harry, when they are working for the Ministry of Defence'. He obviously doesn't care....

Paul McCartney will perform in Gelredome on 9 dec 2009, only to prove to me that he's above the law... and is free to do whatever he likes...despite my ICC-case.

He knows well 'that he's turned into the perfect murderer thanks to his Beatle-status quo, by politicians for political reasons'.

According to our Criminal law McCartney is already official guilty of an attempt to crime on 9 dec 2009.

When he or others will be attacked/killed – that can trigger into war in NL & EU – what will make the hidden hatred in NL visible

= people will vote for Geert Wilders because he wants to break down current systems.

It will also put all Gelredome-personel into prison for co-working with an official war-criminal, named Paul McCartney.

And, it will cause hel in Paris on 10dec2009 during his next concert.

McCartney contributes to the death of USA-soldiers in Afghanistan/Pakistan with his behavior towards me ...and Obama rewards him for doing so with a concert & the Gershwin-prize at the Whitehouse.

Is this the kind of President you want to become, Dmitri...?

How are you going to fit in the European Security Treaty, when you can't work from the truth?

That treaty indicates that Russia wants to live in equality with Europe.

But what good will it bring as long as the 'upper-class' is free to be the perfect murderer ...and only the 'lower-class' is to be punished....for everything & nothing....for political games with war?

I want to think of you as 'a Russian man

-oké, he's a President but I don't care for titles – who understands the importancy of NLF & Love...'

Did I tell you 'that I Love my son for bringing me Evolution of Education', thanks to his Autism-borderliner-bastard inside his good Self'?

I Love you for bringing Evolution of Love, between the Two of Us.

Goals for live: Equality in the Galaxy.

Don't throw this away Dmitri.... for politics, power & money.

All the wisdom you need is already available, usually in the Mirror for Thoughts.

'Never put a parrot in a court of law, when you want Evolution of Justice'!
